

How many new homes are coming?

There are currently 112 legal lots ready for new home construction in 2017 and 2018.

We may see approximately 250 more lots become available following possible construction at new developments in 2018-2021.

We hope to see additional commercial growth over the next few years – due to strong regional job growth in the Puget Sound Region.