

Is there really a new self-storage facility being built on Main Street? What will it look like?

Yes, a new indoor self-storage facility is being constructed at 14441 Main Street NE. The rendering to the left is what the facility will look like when viewed from the street. The facility will have approximately 620 storage units. Construction is expected to begin later this year.

